

FFC Women's Ministries

Dear Sisters,

In anticipating another wonderful season of studying God's Word together, I find my thoughts turning to a dear lady, a wonderful friend and sister who will be dearly missed. Do you remember how Donna Gibbs used to let the wall guide her into the nursery to rock babies, when she was too weak to walk without support? There were many weeks when the weather gave a lot of ladies an excuse not to come to study, but Donna was there. During one of our last weeks at study in spring, I remember kissing her soft glistening cheek, looking into the sky-blue eyes peering out from her pale face, and marveling at her example of faithfulness.

I am spurred on to growth in love and faithfulness. How about you? Could you be encouraged by a woman who wouldn't let poor health become an excuse? Do you need to be encouraged that you belong with the church family on Sunday and Wednesday nights? With September's "Sweet Moves," it's a good time to start. Do you need to make Tuesday mornings at FFC a part of your week? Why not put it on your calendar now.

One thing has got to make us smile a little—to think about Dick and Donna, no longer crippled by arthritis, no longer slowed down by diabetes—dancing together before our wonderful Lord and Savior. Don't you think when we're all there dancing those streets of gold together, we'll be glad we allowed God's Spirit to work His faithfulness in us?

Together in the Lamb, Ruth

Ladies Bible Study resumes Sept. 11

Set Tuesday mornings aside for a wonderful time to fellowship in God's Word, with teacher Carole Woodard. 10-11:30am.

Praise God

Taste of FFC was awesome! Each treat was delicious, each demonstrator encouraged us to delight in the Lord. Thank you to all who were involved, and who invited a friend.

We need to be praying

Please be praying for our pastors, elders, and deacons. Pray for them to be filled with wisdom, to be effective as they minister, and for their marriages and health.

The old old story has come so far
He is my life, hope's Morningstar
Praise, only praise while my life is long
With every breath faith sings this song

From glory and the Father's throne
Highest love sacrificed His own
Pushed His beloved Son to murder
All this to become my Father

Blood was poured out at the slaughter
Price to purchase son and daughter
Carving a place in Heaven's hollow
Christ my Redeemer I will follow

Desire bows to my King forever
Service streams from His love river
O God will they see your loving face
Know your eternal mercy and grace

How glorious the heavenly height
Sweet purest love the only sight
Beauty finally fully known
Jesus, Savior, joy of Heaven
